RAREY
JOHN S. RAREY, whose European success in training and teaching the Horse is so well known to all Americans, has the honor to announce that he will give a practical exposition of his peculiar art of HORSEMANSHIP on SATURDAY AFTERNOON, Jan. 5, at which has been especially engaged for this occasion.

Mr. RAREY, in his former demonstrations in this country having been of a private nature, will endeavor to make this exhibition as entertaining and instructive as have been his lectures in Europe.

Referring to the numerous meetings which have been arranged by the Friends, Nobility, and Gentry of the Old World, he trusts that he may meet and receive the same favor at the hands of his countrymen.

This lecture will commence at 3 o'clock p.m.

"The Union Must be Preserved,"—An Officer of the First Division presents, in return, a REQUIEM TO THE VOLUNTEERS, to be recited in the Schools of the Federal Union. Persons desirous of uniting in such a movement are requested to address, post-paid, UNION VOLUNTEERS, N. Y. Post Office, Station D.

Attention!—Persons desirous of joining a MILITARY ORGANIZATION for the defense of our Country, and all who would like to be useful, will please address VOLUNTEER, Tribune Office.
